

HISTORY FROM THE MARGINS

SHAW 2024 Conference

Friday 5th July 2024

Rothermere American Institute, The University of Oxford

PROGRAMME

Registration and Welcome (9:15-9:45)

Panel 1: Race, Religion and Sexuality (9:45-11:15)

Chair:

- La Shonda Mims: Sexualities, race, and gender politics in the Christian Pentecostal Assemblies of God (AG) denomination
- Dr. Marie Molloy: White, Female Adultery across the Colour Line in North Carolina, 1800-1870
- Carol Grose: "The golden path": Interracialism, Internationalism, and Southern Baptist Women in the 1930s
- Catherine Clinton: Reproductive Rights in Peril: from the Civil War to the culture wars

Break (11:15-11:25)

Panel 2: Women in Politics and Culture (11:25-12:45)

Chair:

- Allison O. Ramsay: Telling HerStory through Calypso in the Anglophone Caribbean
- Mariana Rodríguez-Barreno: Indigenismo from the Margins: Alicia and Celia Bustamante and the Shaping of a Cultural Practice
- Mercedes Crisostomo: Untold Histories of Women in Radical Politics in Peru: The Relevance of Political Pluralism

Lunch (12:45-13:30)

Panel 3: Women's Voices, Women's Words (13:30-15:00)

Chair:

- Brian Newton: You Say Your Cattle Are Not Ours: Tekahionwake's Narrative of Restoration
- John Bird: "Verbatim, From the Lips of an Old Chippewa Woman": Labour, Gender, and Nineteenth-Century Anishinaabe Writing
- Laura Gillespie: "Why is [Indigenous] Women's History Written in Invisible Ink?": The Continued Erasure of Haudenosaunee Women in the Western Archive
- Dr. Angela Elder: "Almost Alone": Women and Civil War at the Dry Tortugas, Florida

Break (15:00-15:10)

Panel 4: (Re)Writing Herstory (15:10-16:30)

Chair:

- Lois Leveen: Losing and Finding Mary Richards Denman, an African American Slave, Spy, Educator, and Activist
- Nadine Barakat: Dissent in the 'Middle Passage:' Untold Stories from the Margin that Re-Mapped the Trade
- Elsa Charléty: When the margins write back: Anna Julia Cooper's history of the Haitian Revolution

Closing Remarks (16:30-16:45)

With thanks to the Rothermere American Institute for hosting and supporting this conference

@SHAWsociety

<https://shawsociety.net/>